Stayton Library Presents

REEM JUBRAN

Thursday, January 21, 2016

The Stayton Public Library is excited to announce a presentation from Palestinian student Reem Jubran on Thursday, January 21, 2016 at 7:00 pm in the E. G. Siegmund Meeting Room. There will be a reception accompanying the event.

Reem Jubran is an AFS exchange student from Palestine. She won a scholarship to not only study here in America but to share about her homeland and culture. She wants to show us her daily life, her foods and customs, the dances and celebrations. She also wants to spread that message that Muslims are not bad people and their God is one of love. She hopes to study medicine here and become a doctor.

Stayton Public Library

Hours:

Monday through Thursday

The Signature of All Things

By Elizabeth Gilbert

A glorious, sweeping novel of desire, ambition, and the thirst for knowledge.

Spanning much of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the novel follows the fortunes of the extraordinary Whittaker family as led by the enterprising Henry Whittaker--a poor-born Englishman who makes a great fortune in the quinine trade. His daughter, Alma (who inherits both her father's money and his mind), a gifted botanist, researches the mysteries of evolution while falling in love with an utopian artist against a backdrop of the Age of Enlightenment and the Industrial Revolution.

NEW Adult Program for the New Year

COLORING FOR CREATIVITY AND COMFORT

Looking for a way to reduce some stress and unwind? Join us for a relaxing evening of coloring. Grab a friend, bring a beverage or enjoy some tea, sit back and have a good time. Studies show coloring can have a calming effect on the adult mind and helps promote overall wellness. Supplies, tea, and relaxing music provided.
